

Media release

Basel, 1 March 2016

Ad-hoc publicity

European Competition Commission approves Bell Ltd's acquisition of the Huber Group

The European Competition Commission has given its unconditional approval for the acquisition of the Huber Group by Bell Ltd. This clearance means that all conditions for the definitive completion of the takeover are fulfilled. The Huber Group will be fully consolidated in the Bell Group from 1 March 2016 onwards. Bell announced its plans to take over the Huber Group on 16 December 2015.

Media release on the announcement of the acquisition of the Huber Group (16.12.2015)